USAID NTD Program

President George W. Bush affirms commitment to combat NTDs around the world.

2007

A Turning Point: First Global Partners Meeting on NTDs held at WHO headquarters in Geneva, April 2007

2008

USAID supports 15 countries

- Burkina Faso
- Cameroon
- Ethiopia
- Ghana
- Guinea
- Indonesia
- Laos
- Mozambique
- Nigeria
- Senegal
- Tanzania
- Thailand
- Vietnam
- Zambia
- Zimbabwe

2009

Driver: USAID commits $15 million, Mali

2010

$2.2 billion

- USAID and DFID partnership begins in Nigeria

2011

$3.1 billion

- DFID commits £155 million to NTDs

2012

$4.2 billion

- The 2012 London Declaration on NTDs united a broad range of partners committed to eliminating NTDs.

2013

$6.7 billion

- Ground breaking Global Trachoma Mapping Project (GTMP) launched

2014

$8.8 billion

- USAID joined the Coalition for Operational Research on NTDs (COR-NTD)

2015

$11.1 billion

- Colombia becomes first country in the world to eliminate onchocerciasis

2016

$140 billion

- Over 1.000 eyeland surgeries were carried out in Burkina Faso, Cameroon and Ethiopia, preventing further suffering and vision loss from blinding trachoma

In-House

- President Barack Obama affirms, “We will fight tropical diseases”

IMPACT

- 1 billion people no longer require treatment for lymphatic filariasis in USAID-supported countries

- 1 billion people no longer require treatment for trachoma in USAID-supported countries

COST

- $26 billion

- USAID and DFID partnership has leveraged a billion in donated medicines

ACHIEVEMENTS

President George W. Bush establishes the Tropical Disease Control Program

- 1 billion treatments delivered

USAID and partners celebrate 10th anniversary of USAID NTD Program

- $11.1 billion in donated drugs over the last decade